

University of Oklahoma College of Law University of Oklahoma College of Law Digital Commons

American Indian and Alaskan Native Documents in the Congressional Serial Set: 1817-1899

1-27-1836

Isaac Wellborn, Jr

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.law.ou.edu/indianserialset>

Part of the Indian and Aboriginal Law Commons

Recommended Citation

H.R. Rep. No. 227, 24th Cong., 1st Sess. (1836)

This House Report is brought to you for free and open access by University of Oklahoma College of Law Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in American Indian and Alaskan Native Documents in the Congressional Serial Set: 1817-1899 by an authorized administrator of University of Oklahoma College of Law Digital Commons. For more information, please contact darinfox@ou.edu.

ISAAC WELLBORN, JR.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 239.]

JANUARY 27, 1836.

Mr. CHAPMAN, from the Committee on the Public Lands, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on the Public Lands, to which was referred the petition of Isaac Wellborn, jun. beg leave to report :

That the same subject was referred to the Committee on the Public Lands, at the last session, who made a favorable report thereon, which, with the evidence on file, your committee have examined, and now adopt the report then made as part of this, and report a bill.

DECEMBER 23, 1834.

The Committee on the Public Lands, to which was referred the petition of Isaac Wellborn, jun. beg leave to report :

That the petitioner represents himself the purchaser of a tract of land in Jackson county, Alabama, which was reserved to one Thomas Harrison, the head of an Indian family, under the treaties concluded between the United States and the Cherokees, in July, 1817, and February, 1819. He states that he purchased fairly, and for an adequate consideration, of an individual who derived title from the sole heir of said Thomas Harrison, who continued to reside on said reservation during his life, and died thereon. He asks a confirmation of his title, that he may securely enjoy his rights and the product of his labor. The proof which accompanies the petition establishes satisfactorily that said Harrison continued to reside on said reservation till his death; that he left but one child, a daughter, who married one Samuel Guntre, and united with him in a sale and conveyance to Edward Guntre; and that the latter sold and conveyed to the petitioner and his brother, William Wellborn. Authenticated copies of the deeds of conveyance, in both instances, accompany the petition. It also appears that the widow of Harrison is dead. By the terms of the treaty under which this reservation is claimed, the heads of Indian families were entitled to a "life estate, with a reversion (remainder) in fee simple to their children, reserving to the widow her dower ;" but it is expressly "provided, that if any of the heads of families, for whom reservations may be made, should remove therefrom, then, in that case, the right to revert to the United States." The object of the petitioner is, no doubt, to guard against the loss of the testimony, (it being merely parol,) by which he is now able to prove the continued residence and death of the reservee on the tract of land, and which might hereafter result in the defeat of his title. Under this view of the case, the committee believe it but reasonable to quiet the title, by the relinquishment of the reversionary interest of the United States ; and, for that purpose, they report a bill.

JANUARY 27, 1835

The Chairman, from the Committee on the Public Lands, made the following report :

REPORT

The Committee on the Public Lands, to which was referred the petition of James H. Williams, for quiet title to report :

That the same subject was referred to the Committee on the Public Lands at the last session, who made a favorable report thereon, which will be found on file. Your committee have examined said report and report thereon as part of this and report a bill.

DECEMBER 27, 1834

The Committee on the Public Lands, to which was referred the petition of James H. Williams, for quiet title to report :

That the petitioner represents himself the purchaser of a tract of land in Jackson County, Alabama, which was reserved to one Thomas Harrison, the head of an Indian family under the treaties concluded between the United States and the Cherokee in July 1817, and February 1819. He states that he purchased said land for an adequate consideration of no value but he purchased it fully and for an adequate consideration of no value and he claims title from the sole test of said Thomas Harrison, who continued to reside on said reservation during his life, and died thereon. He was a confirmation of his title that he may securely enjoy his rights in the product of his labor. The report which accompanies the petition states that the petitioner and his wife and children continued to reside on said reservation till his death; that he left her one child, a daughter, who married one Samuel Guntz, and united with him in a sale and mortgage to Edward Guntz; and that the latter sold and conveyed to the petitioner and his father, William Williams. Antiquated copies of the deeds of conveyance in both instances, accompany the petition. It also appears that the widow of Harrison is dead. By the terms of the treaty under which the reservation is claimed, the heirs of Indian families were entitled to a reversion with a reservation (remainder) in fee simple to their own a third person